1. The Yugoslav delegation to the United Nations ~~General Assembly~~ in Paris, although composed of individuals of proven loyalty to the Tito regime, is reported to be closely surveilled by four high-ranking officials of the UDB and numerous other secret agents.
2. With the exception of the Ministers, who are members of the Yugoslav Politburo, none of the delegates to the General Assembly were allowed to take with them their wives or other immediate members of the family.
3. The various specialized personnel of the delegation were subjected to three screenings before the final selection was made. During the trip, their baggage was searched several times by UDB agents.
4. Sava Kosanovic, former Yugoslav Ambassador to Washington, and a member of the current delegation to Paris, has been entrusted with the assignment of contacting, among emigre circles in Paris, leading representatives of the Serbian Agrarian Union and the Serbian Socialist Party. The alleged purpose is to work toward the establishment of a feasible cooperation between the Yugoslav Communist Party and the latter two groups.
